

CASE STUDY

MOMENTA RUSTICANA

For Strava Fitness Apps, McFeggan Brown wanted to create a look that brought the essence of the company into its design. We liked the innovative approach they took so much we featured this project in our Practical Design blog: Is design more important than office location.

The company used MOMENTA RUSTICANA to blend perfectly with their design scheme which was to bring outdoor activities indoors - a beautiful country scene complete with bicycles. MOMENTA is a heavy contract Luxury Vinyl Tile that is perfect for high traffic areas. As a range it is carefully textured and is micro-bevelled on all sides, and has great depth of colour, so it looks stunning in almost any environment. As with all LVT products it is easy to maintain another pre-requisite of the project.
